

CESSATION OF COAL MINING IN ENGLAND PARALYZES INDUSTRY

Strike Will Seriously Effect All Other Industries--Tramway Service May Be Suspended--Strikers and Police Clash.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The cessation of coal mining throughout the country seems complete, for, although the miners in some districts appear to have entered the strike in a half hearted manner there is no sign yet of any break in the ranks of the men and consequently the dislocation of the country's industries is becoming widespread.

Nor is there indication of any negotiation growing out of today's various conferences, all parties apparently awaiting the reassembling of parliament tomorrow when it is expected the discussion of the strike will displace the Irish home bill which was the first scheduled business before the house of commons.

There is an unconfirmed report tonight that the government intends to offer the miners a compromise of one shilling per shift advance, provided they accept submission of the whole dispute to an independent tribunal.

The strike will hit the iron, steel and cotton industries seriously. The great blast furnaces in the Middlesbrough district are already beginning to damp down; thousands of furnace men, steel workers are idle. The Tees-Side district provides a third of the whole British output of pig-iron and it is feared, should the strike be prolonged that some 25,000 men will be without work.

Liverpool and Manchester announce the impending suspension of the tramway services, and among the minor effects of the strike are the countermarching of public social functions. Already the visit of the Prince of Wales to the city on Wednesday has been rescheduled and it is announced that the pageant which was to have been a feature of the lord mayor's show, entitled "the makers of London" has been abandoned, owing to the coal strike.

Frank Hodges, of the miners' union has issued a statement giving minute figures intended to prove that the miners' wages since 1914 has not advanced commensurately with the advance in the cost of living.

On Saturday the announcement was made that a demonstration of unemployed and former service men and women which was scheduled to be held this afternoon in Trafalgar Square at the base of the Nelson monument, would be prohibited. It was to have delegations from outlying sections of the city headed by the borough mayors.

When the prohibitive order was issued the men decided to march in along the Thames to the neighborhood of the parliament buildings as a common meeting place. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the embankment for a distance of several hundred yards was jammed, each delegation bearing banners with such inscriptions as "We Have Done Our Bit," "Now Do Yours," "We Want What We Fought For—Work and a Living Wage."

There was a delegation of women in the throng. Their banner was inscribed: "Unemployed Female War Workers."

It had been agreed to have the borough mayors constitute a deputation to go to the premier's official residence in Downing street and present the case of the men and receive the government's reply.

Halted by Police. While they were on this mission the paraders, some of whom singing started off toward White Hall. During the march a number of red flags made their appearance. When the procession reached the entrance to Downing street it was met by a strong cordon of patrolmen, three or four deep.

Impromptu orators among the leaders of the marchers addressed the crowd which faltered momentarily and then attempted to press onward. At this moment mounted patrolmen appeared to reinforce the foot police. There were angry shouts from the marchers and soon the stones began flying. The mounted men drew their short sword-like riot sticks. This seemed to arouse the ill-temper of the marchers, for they surged forward again and seemed on the verge of breaking thru the barrier when an order was given to charge. Then came a mad scramble in the front ranks of the marchers who turned and stampeded wildly into those who were behind.

The demonstrators found the building about the centrepiece veritable ammunition dumps. They paused to pick up stones, boards, charged with robbing a garage in bits of broken concrete and other

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE DEALS MAY BE INVESTIGATED

Governor Allen of Kansas to Press Demand to the Government

STRONGLY AGAINST FOOD GAMBLING

TOPEKA, Kans., Oct. 18.—Governor Allen will press his demands for government investigation of the Chicago Board of Trade on his charges that wheat prices have been manipulated, he said today upon his return from an eastern campaign speaking tour.

"My request to President Wilson," he said, was merely for an investigation as to operations on the board. I am now waiting action on that request and believe an investigation will show some startling facts and conditions."

Referring to the recent slumps of wheat and cotton Governor Allen said:

"If it is shown that these price fluctuations were due to speculation, cold deliberate gambling and not conditions of supply and demand I will urge abolition of the board."

In any event I will fight illegal gambling in necessities. "It is impossible to conceive how various forms of gambling in the state and nation should be made illegal and yet become perfectly legitimate when the speculators and gamblers are betting on the prices of the food we must eat and the clothes we must wear. If it is illegal to bet on a horse race, how can we reason that it is good public policy to gamble on bread and cotton and other necessities?"

"Had the Kansas farmers sold their wheat under the recent break they would have been forced to lose $100,000,000. I cannot see the merit of a legalized gamble in necessities by persons who sell thousands of bushels of grain they do not own and who buy thousands of bushels of grain that is never delivered."

ITALIAN MINISTER LEAVES FOR ROME

In Public Statement Says America Has Wreaked Impression of His Country's Internal Troubles.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Before his departure tonight for Rome on leave of absence Baron Camello Romano Avezzano the Italian ambassador told The Associated Press he was able to state from official information that the American public had a very erroneous impression of the internal situation of his country.

"It would be untrue to say that complications had never arisen," he said, however, as in the case of the recent trouble with the metal workers, all contentions had been amicably settled by the foresight and subsequent intervention of the government whose authority was by all recognized.

"Socialistic movements have been evident but they have never threatened the state and solutions have been arrived at which solved intricate problems, the outcome being the erection of a great barrier against any possible menace of revolution."

RELIEF PROMISED BY PAPER MAKER

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Relief in the American newspaper situation was promised by Hjalmar Gronqvist, managing director of the Finnish Paper Mill Union and Walter Grassbeck, managing director of the Finnish Cellulose association on their arrival from Finland today aboard the Steamer Stockholm.

The paper mills of Finland, they said, turn out about 20,000 tons of paper each year, of which 45 per cent is newsprint and it was their intention to open up a larger market in the United States.

Eventually Finland's entire paper output would be placed on the American market ready to meet all competition in prices, they asserted.

COX PREACHES HIS LEAGUE GOSPEL IN SENATE OF NEW YORK

Said Harding Slipped on French Representative Story

PREVENT HEADING OF COVENANT

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Preaching his league of nations gospel today in the New York State Senate, Governor Cox renewed assaults against Senator Harding, his Republican opponent, for alleged "wiggling and wobbling" upon the league issue.

To six large audiences at Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, and two rear platform addresses, the Democratic candidate has preached against the civilian population and strictly parallel to the campaign which the Germans were alleged to have carried on against the Belgians.

"Men were dragged from their beds and brutally murdered, women and children were terrorized," he said. "There have been no less than 77 such murders and these murders do not include men who met their death in armed struggle with British forces. More than 100 towns and villages have been destroyed in order to inflict loss upon the people. Transportation has been held up in certain districts with the idea of using the weapon of starvation."

"Murderers against whom unequal verdicts have been brought, coroners have been promoted. Now inquiries are being made by civil authorities have fixed responsibility for unprovoked pillage and bloodshed on the British armed forces and over 50 coroners' juries have passed on the verdicts of wilful murder."

Says Harding Slipped. Senator Harding's slip occurred Governor Cox continued in one of his back platform speeches. "Obviously the Republican party insists upon being protected from the blunders of its candidate. The circumstances create the question as to what protection America can devise against presidential blunders if Senator Harding should chance to be elected."

Governor Cox reiterated that Senator Harding had taken thirteen variant league positions and the Democratic nominee predicted that the American people would not approve an attempt to "twiddle into all of his dis-

Governor Cox asked, whether, if elected, Senator Harding in carrying out his proposal for "plural government," would consult with the Johnson-Borah or other groups. That a storm, a cyclone of protest from Republican men and women, has followed Senator Harding's speech, was asserted by Governor Cox to all of his audiences.

Charges that the opposition was preventing the voters from reading the league covenant were repeated by the governor and he reiterated that, if elected he believed he could agree with the nation upon ratification.

Large crowds applauded the governor into all of his meetings. At Rochester he spoke to a capacity audience at Convention Hall and also briefly to an overflow crowd.

DENIES KNOWLEDGE HOLIDAY MOVEMENT

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 18.—President Lowell of Harvard disclaimed knowledge of the telegram sent to the governors by the League of Nations day committee of which he is a member asking them to proclaim Sunday, Oct. 24 a day for the public to be informed on the league covenant.

In a letter to Governor Calvin Coolidge who refused the request, President Lowell said he disapproved the suggestion in the telegram that the covenant be read in the public schools and said that if it was the intent of the telegram to advocate the use of religious services to disseminate the covenant, he disapproved of that also.

CHARGE IS MADE IRISH HOMES ARE RAIDED BY GANGS

Claims 40,000 Such Raids and Robberies to Date

ADDRESS IS MADE BY EAMON DE VALERA

Odenburgh, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Eamon de Valera, "president of the Irish Republic" today charged that during the last 20 months "British murder gangs raided Irish homes," and that "there have been close to 40,000 such raids and robberies."

Addressing delegates of the self-determination league of Canada and New Foundland, De Valera said, the government of the British empire, of which Canada is a part, has instigated a campaign in which Ireland of organized assassination of the representatives of the Irish people.

He characterized this as a general campaign of frightfulness of which any civilized government would be ashamed, directed against the civilian population and strictly parallel to the campaign which the Germans were alleged to have carried on against the Belgians.

"Men were dragged from their beds and brutally murdered, women and children were terrorized," he said. "There have been no less than 77 such murders and these murders do not include men who met their death in armed struggle with British forces. More than 100 towns and villages have been destroyed in order to inflict loss upon the people. Transportation has been held up in certain districts with the idea of using the weapon of starvation."

OPERATING EXPENSE OF OUR GOVERNMENT RUNS TO BILLIONS

Regulatory Statement Issued by Secretary of the Treasury

FOR CERTIFICATES IS LARGEST ITEM

Washington, Oct. 18.—Governmental expenditures for the month of September amounted to $1,944,000,000 while for the first three months of the fiscal year, the total was over $3,630,000, according to the regular statement issued today by the treasury department.

Ordinary expenditures for the month amounted to $496,776,654 including disbursements to the railroads totalling $179,758,610 for claims growing out of federal control and payments made under the transportation act. War department expenditures were next, amounting to $103,783,097 including $38,169,298 paid the railroad administration for transportation during the war. Payment of $40,000,000 to the shipboard by the war department was also shown.

Expenditures for the public debt during the month totalled $1,447,316,873 of which $1,395,970,500 applied to the redemption of certificates of indebtedness was the largest item.

1919 BALL SERIES NOW UNDER FIRE

Cook County Grand Jury are After Alleged "Fixers" to Throw Games to Cincinnati.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The Cook county grand jury investigating baseball gambling will devote its future sessions to procuring evidence against the men who are alleged to have "fixed" the 1919 World Series by bribing Chicago American League players to lose games to the Cincinnati National League team, according to a statement tonight by Hartley Replegie, prosecutor in charge of the inquiry.

While further indictments may be voted against major league players a nine strength of evidence already received, Mr. Replegie said, the jury plans to delve tomorrow almost exclusively into the ramifications of an alleged gambling ring which sought control of the annual championship series. Besides attempting to procure evidence against the world's series "fixers" the jury will look into baseball pools which are said to have flourished in Chicago during the past year with enormous financial returns to the men conducting them.

Nineteen witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear tomorrow including Arnold Rothstein of New York, Abe Attell, former featherweight boxing champion, three St. Louis men, Ban Johnson, John Heydler and other major league officials. It is not believed, however, that either Rothstein or Attell will appear.

LETTERS OF LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE PROVED SENSATION

League Spent $2,500 to Finance Letter of Gompers

WANTED TO SEND ARTICLE TO DELEGATES

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 18.—Scores of confidential letters from the files of the League to Enforce Peace, of which William Howard Taft is president, were introduced into the record of the senate committee investigating campaign expenditure late today.

Don H. Hunt, attorney for the committee who investigated the activities of the league, reported that "in my estimation" officials of the league have violated the Logan act, passed January 30, 1919, which prohibits American citizens carrying on negotiations with foreign governments or their agents regarding disputes or controversies without the permission of the United States. The act carries a penalty, upon conviction, of fines of not more than $5,000 and imprisonment of from six months to three years."

The senate committee today completed its investigation of the pre-convention campaign in Missouri and adjourned to meet again some time after the election. Before adjourning telegrams were dispatched to the chairmen of the Republican and Democratic national, senatorial and congressional committees directing them to file complete statements of their receipts and expenditures and pledges at Chicago on Thursday, October 28. The reports will be made public at that time.

Report Proved Sensation. The report of Mr. Hunt's investigation of the league to enforce peace proved the sensation of the day. Dozens of confidential letters between Mr. Taft, George W. Wickersham, Theodore Marburg and others were given.

In his summary Mr. Hunt said that Herbert S. Houston testified before the committee that he had talked with Bourgeoisie, the German chancellor, Lord Robert Cecil and David Lloyd George in regard to the United States entering the league of nations and that Edgar Feline of Boston who has been abroad on a similar mission to get Germany into the league.

"The correspondence and data which follows bears out the charge which I am about to make," Mr. Hunt's report says. "The official correspondence and conferences talked with various officials of foreign governments about getting this and other countries into the league of nations peace treaty, all of which in my estimation, is in violation of the Logan act."

Took Letters From Files. Mr. Hunt also reported that William H. Short, secretary of the league, took from the files certain letters between Mr. Short and George W. Wickersham in which Mr. Short proposed a campaign in the interest of Governor Cox and Mr. Wickersham "agreed in part."

Mr. Short refused to give up the letters, the report stated, thru the ground that they were personal. A letter from Mr. Wickersham to Mr. Short, dated July 30, 1920, says:

"Thank you, my dear Mr. Short, for Arthur Sweetser's memo. It is very logical and sound. How much better was Governor Coolidge's speech of acceptance than that of Senator Harding."

Other correspondence shows that ex-President Taft threatened to resign from the presidency of the league if it took a partisan part in politics and reiterated his belief that Senator Harding will be elected and that "the one hope of securing the league with the Republican candidate."

Spent $2,500 on Gompers's Letter. The Hunt report shows that the league to enforce peace spent $2,500 to finance a letter sent by Samuel Gompers to 50,000 local unions asking the union members to bring pressure to bear on senators to have them vote for the league of nations.

Other items of expenditure include bills for publication of advertisements in 44 cities throughout the country and two bills one of $24,583.25 and the other $10,534.22 from the Western Newspaper Union.

A letter from Theodore Marburg of Boston, to Secretary Short dated August 12, 1920, says that the "most direct road to ratification (of the treaty) is the complete defeat of political parties which has suffered the conscienceless senate band to Another letter from Mr. Marburg to Mr. Short written at Baltimore on April 29, 1920, discussed an article on the League of Nations written by Hamilton Holt and added:

"I strongly urge that the article in question be reprinted in the type and style of a newspaper clipping—that from the Times preferably—and sent to

SENATOR HARDING MAKES REPLY TO WILSON'S INQUIRY

Tells President He Sees No Impropriety in Act—Says Any Private Citizen Has Right to Express Sentiment Manifest in France—Suggests He is More Than Private Citizen

MARION, O., Oct. 18.—Replying to an inquiry from President Wilson, Senator Harding wrote the white house tonight that altho France had sent her "spokesmen" to him informally asking America to lead the way for an association of nations, the incident had not involved the French government in any violation of international properties.

The senator declared that in his reference to the subject in a speech at Greencastle, Ind., recently he only had sought to convey the thought that there had come to him "those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people."

He added that his words "could not be construed to mean that the French government has sent anybody to me."

Referring to Mr. Wilson's suggestion of impropriety in a foreign nation approaching a private citizen, on such a subject, Senator Harding pointed out that he is a member of the foreign relations committee as well as a nominee for the presidency and suggested that "an informal expression to me is rather more than that to a private citizen."

Text of Harding Letter. The text of Senator Harding's letter sent in reply to one from the president asking whether the senator had been correctly quoted in his Green Castle speech, is as follows:

"Dear Mr. President: "I have before me a press copy of your letter to me of this date, tho I am not in receipt of the original copy. I am glad to make a prompt reply."

"It is very gratifying that you hesitate to draw inferences without my assurances that I am correctly quoted. The quotation as reported in your letter is not exact. The notes of the stenographer reporting my remarks quote me as saying: 'France has sent her spokesmen to me informally asking America in its new realization of the situation to lead the way for an association of nations.'"

"I am sure that my words could not be construed to say that the French government has sent anybody to me. The thought I was trying to convey was that there had come to me those who spoke a sentiment which they represented to be very manifest among the French people, but nothing could suggest the French government having violated the proprieties of international relations. Official France would never seek to go over your high office to our chief executive to appeal to the American people or any portion thereof."

Sees No Impropriety. "I can see no impropriety in private citizens of France, or in Americans, deeply friendly to France, expressing to me their understanding of sentiment in that friendly republic."

"It is not important enough to discuss, perhaps, but I very respectfully assure you that an informal expression to me is rather more than that to a private citizen. I hold a place as a member of the foreign relations committee of the United States senate, which is charged with certain constitutional authority in dealing with foreign relations, and I am necessarily conscious that I am the nominee of the Republican party for president of our Republic."

"In the combination of these two positions it ought not be unseemly that some very devoted friends of a new and better relationship among nations, no matter where they come should wish to advise me relating to aspirations to cooperate with our own republic in attaining the high purpose. Let me assure you again of the observance of all the proprieties and again assert that the French government has maintained that great respect for your position to which I myself subscribe."

"With great respect I am, Very Truly, "WARREN H. HARDING."

ROOSEVELT WANTS TO KNOW SPOKESMAN'S NAME

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 18.—Speaking before a crowd which packed the coliseum here tonight, Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice-presidential nominee called upon Senator Harding to name the alleged spokesman for France who is reported to have conferred with him "informally asking America in its new realization of the situation to lead the way to a new association of nations," and to cite his authority.

Team work is one of the most essential factors in efficient state government. The only way to obtain it is to vote the ticket straight. That is the reason the Republicans throughout Illinois say they are going to "vote it straight."

A vote for the straight Republican ticket is the surest way to get men in office whose minds will go with the desires of the people rather than the whims of any one individual.

New voters—both men who have just attained their majority and women who have their first full vote—should beware of the scratched ticket. The only certain way to make your vote count is to "vote it straight."

Women magistrates for courts dealing with children's cases are advocated in a report just issued by the British Board of Education, according to information received by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Juvenile offenses against the law are on the increase in England. The old methods of punishment by whipping and imprisonment have failed. In 1916 the number of young persons sent to prison totaled 2,800 in 1918. Of all those who were punished by detention, one-sixth were back in the court within a month. Whipping has proved more of a failure, as one-fourth of the offenders reappeared in court within a month. The treatment of juvenile offenders in England has been greatly improved since the passage of the Children's Act in 1908, but many of the magistrates have not had a sympathetic understanding of child life and they have not been keen to avail themselves of the many facilities for consideration placed at their disposal. The principle of rehabilitation was recognized in the law, but the practice has been neglected.

The report recommends that every juvenile court, not only in the cities but also in the rural districts, which has to deal with any considerable number of offenders should have a children's probation officer. His duty would be not only to supervise cases himself but to secure the co-operation of teachers, scout masters, officers of boys and girls clubs, and other social organizations so that every child in his charge should be introduced to one or more of these agencies.

ABANDON ATTACK ON CONGRESS

There have been two notable and significant shifts in the style of the Democratic campaign in recent weeks. One of these is the abandonment of the charge that the present Republican congress "littered away its time," and the other is the abandonment of the attacks upon the "Senate oligarchy" and upon congress in general.

The fact is that in the past five or six years the attitude of the country toward congress has changed. A few years back it was common practice for newspapers to poke fun at the legislative branch of the government. Public speakers could win applause by rapping congress. Public disrespect for congress was increased during the early years of the Wilson administration when, on frequent occasions, the Democratic congress abjectly surrendered its right to think and act on its own judgment and obeyed the orders from the White House.

But a change came with the election of a Republican congress. Although Wilson was the most partisan President the country has ever had, the Republican congress gave him unqualified support in the prosecution of the war. In fact, the record discloses that he had a larger proportion of support among Republican members than among Democrats, and the most important military bill was given into the charge of a Republican because the Democratic chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs refused to support it. That record, established while the Democrats still had control, helped change the majority to the Republican side in 1918.

In the past two years the Republicans have forced savings of two billions four hundred millions by cutting that amount of the demands of the Democratic administration. That alone gave the country a very impressive demonstration of the loyalty of congress to its constituents, and its value to the country as a guardian of public interests.

The Republican congress enacted a railroad bill providing the first steps in unscrambling the railroads and getting them back on an efficiency and economy basis after the chaos created by an administration that tried to force extension of government control for five years longer, which extension, if granted, would have blended into government ownership with all its ills of extravagance, inefficiency, partisanship, sectionalism, and decadence.

The Republican congress enacted a merchant marine law which assures permanency for the shipping industry. That same congress enacted an oil land leasing law and a water power law—both measures which insure development of latent national resources with due safeguards for the public welfare. The Republican congress forced the Department of Justice to take steps to suppress the "Red" element of our population.

But, more important than all else, the Republican Senate blocked the effort of President Wilson to force America to make the "supreme sacrifice" to a super-state known as the league of nations. Republicans pledged themselves to take up the subject of international agreements for the preservation of peace and for disarmament, but refused to bind the United States to the war-producing provisions of the league covenant.

This record of accomplishment, with much else that might be mentioned, has brought congress into such high repute that it is no longer popular for an autocratic executive department to cast slurs at the legislative branch of the government. Cox has quit it.

IDLE TALK

I hear poor Hicks talk politics from dawn until the gloaming, and, calm and cool, I groom my mule, her fetlocks currying. Oh, I might talk around the block with every passing neighbor, I might devote to Harding's goat the time I spend in labor, but I'm inclined to keep in mind the fact that winter's coming, when storms will whoop around my coop, and blizzards will be humming. I do my chores while all outdoors is full of idle yapping, for still the Hicks talk politics, and keep the welkin popping. I thresh my beans and other greens, my prune trees wisely guarding; my boosts or knocks won't hinder Cox or put a crimp in Harding. Whoever wins you'll see my bins well filled with spuds and carrots; my crops I raise while other jays talk bunk like loosed parrots. Sometimes at night, by candle light, when all my work is ended, I spiel a while of campaign galle, in language high and splendid. And people list in awe, I wist, as though to some law-giver, to plans I've planned, this weary land from bondage to deliver. But in the day I toil away, the lean earth smelly larding, and heave no rocks at Jimmy Cox, and heave no bricks at Harding.

IMMEDIATE USE FOR NEW SANATORIUM

Dr. George T. Palmer, President Illinois Tuberculosis Association, writes today on behalf of Government Seeking Place for Care of Tubercular Ex-Servicemen.

That there is immediate use for a Morgan County tuberculosis sanatorium, even for patients other than those resident here, is indicated in a letter from Dr. George T. Palmer, president of the Illinois Tuberculosis association and now in charge of some special work for the government in caring for tubercular ex-servicemen.

The government is seeking places for the care of these patients and Dr. Palmer is anxious to send men to the local sanatorium as soon as they can be cared for. The self-explanatory letter is as follows:

October Eleventh, 1920.
Dr. Grace Dewey,
Morgan County Tuberculosis Sanatorium Board,
Jacksonville, Illinois.
My Dear Doctor Dewey:

I am very anxious to know how soon the Morgan County Tuberculosis Sanatorium will be completed and open to patients. My understanding was that your institution would probably have more beds when completed than required for your immediate needs and if so, it occurs to me that these beds ought to be available to returned tuberculosis soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses for whom there is a distinct shortage of accommodations at the present time.

You are possibly aware that the U. S. Public Health Service in administering funds appropriated by Congress for the institutional care of returned soldiers in making contracts with private and public tuberculosis sanatoria for the care of these men. The rate paid fully covers cost of operation and ranges from $2.50 to $3.50 per day. I am satisfied that if the Morgan County Sanatorium can be opened within a reasonable length of time that the Public Health Service would be very glad to utilize all of the beds that you can spare.

I feel that in rendering this service, the Morgan County Tuberculosis Sanatorium will be performing a public function which should be gratifying to the people of the county and further that it would afford a place for the returned tuberculosis soldiers of Morgan and adjacent counties to have satisfactory care near to their homes.

At the present time, the shortage of sanatorium beds is so acute that it is necessary to send returned soldiers to quarters operated in connection with county almshouses, a policy which is distinctly objectionable to the Public Health Service and repugnant to the thinking people of the state.

Sincerely Yours,
George Thomas Palmer,

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. Don Sung Chinese for Egg-Laying

13 Eggs A Day From 17 Young Pullets

Mrs. Niles Starts 6-months Old Pullets Laying. Tells How.

Early in November, I bought a dozen of Don Sung Chinese for egg-laying. It took 17 May pullets. In the first days they laid 138 lovely eggs. All the pullets I got 17 to 18 eggs a day. Mrs. J. N. Niles, R. F. D. 2, Lu-corne, Ind.

Mrs. Niles found how to start young pullets laying in winter. The same method helps hens lay in winter. You can test this at our risk. Give your hens Don Sung and watch for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and our money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It forces up the egg-laying system, so that no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist, or better money dealer, or from $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Export-Import Co., 12 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Laundry Queen with the Copper Tub

Washes and wrings at the same time, wrings out of one batch of clothes while another is being washed—washes twice as fast as other machines.

The washing mechanism moves into your rinse and blue tubs and does all that work. The wringer swings over the different tubs so you need never shift or lift a tub until the wash is out.

And the cost to operate this washer is less than burning a 75-watt lamp because of its planetary gear transmission and it has one of those Emerson motors; the ones with the 5 year guarantee.

ROUTINE BUSINESS AT COUNCIL SESSION

Sidewalks Again Theme for Discussion—Third Ward Aldermen Outline Ward Needs—Plumbing Inspection Ordinance Considered.

The city council held a regular weekly session Monday night with Mayor Crabtree, City Clerk Pratt and Aldermen Cain, Ehnle, Flynn, McGinnis and Moore present. After the usual routine business the old question of sidewalks which have been ordered and not put down was discussed.

Mayor Crabtree explained that in some of the cases referred to by Alderman Flynn of the first ward, that contracts have been let by the city but that the contractor had thus far failed to do the work. In other instances no bids were received.

Alderman McGinnis referred to a new piece of sidewalk on East Lafayette avenue near Allen avenue, where wagons and other vehicles are crossing at a place not a street intersection and damage is resulting.

Alderman Flynn was given special authority to interview the contractor with reference to certain first ward walks.

Thomas Wall of the plumbers' union was present and presented a copy of a plumbers' inspection ordinance which the union suggests should be made a part of the city code. It was given a reading and will have the consideration of the council at a later date.

Alderman Moore read a list of street needs in the third ward. This compilation was made by Aldermen Moore and Cain after they had inspected all the streets of the ward. The statement follows:

Third Ward Needs

Put in a culvert at intersection of Arnett and Goltz avenue, a four foot walk on Hardin to Goltz on south side of street, a four foot walk on south side of Chambers from Hardin to C. & A. railroad. A walk in front of the Smith property on Goltz. A walk in front of the Early Estate on Goltz.

A crossing at the intersection of Henry and Goltz, a walk from Henry to Morton avenue on the west side of the street, a walk in front of the Layman property beginning at Alley No. 215 to College avenue. A walk in front of the Gersan property on East State street.

Repair bridge on Mauvaisterre street, road bed washed out on Mauvaisterre street. Walk on Mauvaisterre street on West side from 437 to College street, walk on east side of Hardin avenue from College avenue to State street. A walk in front of the Belzer residence known as the Lacey property, 942 South Clay avenue.

A walk on north side of Morton avenue to Hardin avenue. A walk on both sides of South East from Morton avenue to Superior avenue. Repair culvert in rear of Biggs' property. A crossing at the intersection of Mauvaisterre and Kentucky streets, a crossing in front of O. B. Cannon's property, a walk on south side of Chambers street between Clay and East street, a walk on East side of Mauvaisterre College avenue and College street. A walk on south side of Chambers street from Goltz to Hardin avenue, a walk on the north side of Chambers street from Clay avenue to Hardin avenue.

Mayor Crabtree said the idea of aldermen making a survey of needed work was excellent, although at this time it will not be possible for the city to have the work done. The communication was received and made a part of the records, with the understanding that the work will be given attention when the city is in funds.

Among visitors present were George Nunes, E. C. Moses and Dr. Edward Bowe.

Why Are Skin Diseases So Difficult to Overcome?

When your skin breaks out with itching eruptions, tetter, rash, eczema, psoriasis, or other terrifying disorders, very often the pain becomes so intense, and the discomfort so thoroughly unbearable that you are willing to try almost any remedy that you think will give some measure of relief from the torture.

But temporary relief will do you but little good, for soon all the itching and irritation breaks out afresh with renewed fury, and you soon realize that local remedies such as ointments, salves and similar treatment will never rid you of your trouble.

It will not be so difficult to rid yourself of skin diseases if you will but realize that these troubles originate in the blood, and if you expect real substantial relief you must treat them through the blood.

The best remedy for this purpose is S.S.S., the fine old blood purifier that purifies the blood of disease germs, and thus restores the skin to a normal and healthy condition.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case, and our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, S20 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

INDEES TUMBLE ALL STARS—SCORE 8 TO 1

Locals Outplay Visitors at All Points—Wright Pitched Air Tight Ball for Indies.

John Wright turned in one of the best games he ever pitched Sunday when he let down the strong all-star team of Springfield with five singles and allowed them to score but one run.

One of the safeties was a slow roller to short that Ruble, because of a lame ankle, was unable to field. Had he been in condition the blow would have been an easy out. In addition to hurling an excellent game Wright also was responsible for enough runs to win the game, sending DeFratres and Christopher over in the second with a single.

Great support was given to Wright by the entire team. Clark caught an excellent game and Denny, Wheeler and Christopher played a fine game on the infield while Riggs made several good catches in left field.

For the visitors Elliott hurled a good game but the locals always did like a left hander and they had their batting eyes yesterday, nipping Elliott for eleven safeties, two of them doubles. Wilkin played a wonderful game in center and several times grabbed line drives that looked good for extra bases.

How the Runs Were Made.

The Indies started off in the first inning with two safeties by Denny and Wheeler but couldn't get a run across. In the second, Scott walked. Grady missed H. DeFratres' third strike and he was safe and Scott took second. Christopher singled, scoring Scott and sending DeFratres to third. Christopher took second on the throw to third. Riggs struck out, but Wright came thru with a single scoring DeFratres and Christopher.

One run came in the third. After Wheeler had struck out Ruble singled, Christopher running for him, stole second and came home when Grady threw the ball into center field.

In the fourth H. DeFratres singled. Christopher sacrificed and took second when Elliott threw the ball by McHugh. DeFratres going to third. Riggs hit to right field for what ordinarily would have been a single but was thrown out by Crowley. DeFratres and Christopher scored. Wheeler's double, Clark's single and Fernandes' error scored one in the fifth.

One run came in the sixth when Denny was hit by a pitched ball to Wheeler and scored on Ruble's single.

The visitors' only run came in the second. W. DeFratres singled, stole second and went to third on Clark's wild peg. To second and scored on Wright's wild peg to the plate. The score:

FORMER RESIDENT MET DEATH IN WEST

Edward Hoblit, Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoblit, Accidentally Shoots Self With Revolver at Home in Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Examiner of recent date tells of the tragic death of Edward Hoblit, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoblit, former resident of this city. The lad was seated in his room examining an old revolver when it was accidentally discharged and his death was almost instantaneous. W. S. Camp sent to friends here a copy of the paper giving an account of the accident.

Sitting alone in his room just prior to retiring for the night, Edward Hoblit, 15-year-old Hollywood High school student, was examining an old rusty revolver when the weapon was accidentally discharged, sending a .32 caliber bullet crashing thru his forehead and causing almost instant death. The tragedy came as a great shock to many friends of the family.

Young Hoblit was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alvin Hoblit, 7529 Franklin street, Hollywood.

The members of the Hoblit family, including his father and mother and a sister, Miss Faith Hoblit, aged 14, a high school classmate of the youth, had retired for the evening.

Shortly before 9 o'clock last night there was a sharp report from the revolver. The noise of the explosion brought the startled members of the family rushing to Edward's room. His sister, Faith, whose room was directly across the hall, was the first to reach the side of the mortally wounded youth.

A gaping wound in the forehead revealed the lodging place of the bullet. Dr. George T. Boyd was hastily summoned but when he arrived the youth was dead.

The mother of the boy is prostrated with grief.

Faith, his sister, said that Edward had owned the revolver but a few days. She said she understood that he obtained it from one of his boy companions in some kind of a trade.

Trigger Missing.

An examination of the revolver revealed that the trigger was missing. In addition to this the weapon was of hammerless make. Whether Edward knew the revolver was loaded is not known.

World War Veteran Says Trutona Builds Up Run Down System After Return from France.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 18.—"After spending seventeen months in France, during which time I was gassed," says George E. Severance, a world war veteran who lives in Rockford at 1625 West State street, "I realized when I got back home that my system was in a dreadfully run-down condition. I was so weakened and nervous that I was really unfit for any kind of work. The food I ate soured in my stomach, and my bowels would go for three or four days without an action. It was next to impossible for me to sleep at night.

"I have made a gain of five pounds in weight since I began taking Trutona, and I certainly feel stronger in every way. My food digests properly now, and my bowels act regularly every day, too. Furthermore I sleep as I should at night, also. I'm glad to make this statement in praise of Trutona for the good it has done me, and to help other sufferers."

Now is the time to get after your run-down system, like Mr. Severance did. Let Trutona rebuild your nerves and tissues and restore the strength which hot summer weather has sapped. A good healthy body is your greatest asset, and almost invariably wards off the influenza. Don't take a chance with the 'flu.' Take Trutona and enjoy the vigor of life which is sure to follow.

Trutona is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co., and J. F. Shreve; in Franklin by Wyle Drug Co., and in Waverly by Wyle Drug Co.—Adv.

A REMARKABLE CAREER
Less than ten years ago R. A. Watson of Chicago went to Pike county with a small sum of money and largely on credit bought a half interest in 240 acres of orchard land and today he owns in various parts of the state some 1,000 acres of apple bearing soil. His largest holdings are in Pike county and at Valley City he has a cold storage building 80 by 400 feet and three stories high and is constructing another building 60 by 90 feet four stories high. This he will partly devote to the manufacture of cider, apple butter and apples. After the cider is made the pummie is used in the manufacture of jellies and the like to good advantage.

He has an outfit capable of producing a car load of cider a day. He has a large number of horses and a number of trucks also. He has a large stable which, like all his other buildings, is made of tile. At Neoga he has a large orchard and a cold storage plant doing a large business. He has cooper shops where he makes his barrels, a boarding house for his men and a large plant in general.

In addition to his own apples he handles the choice products of the Pacific coast. At one time he received 132 car loads of boxed fruit from the state of Washington and the freight on the lot was over $19,000. This fall he has eighty car loads on the way from the far west.

GREETINGS, PETE!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette. I'll spin it for you, old top—listen:

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Peter, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

'And, you know me!

COUNTY TEACHERS INSTITUTE FRIDAY

The first general meeting of city and rural teachers since the beginning of the fall term will be held in this city next Friday at the David Prince building. Programs for the session were mailed yesterday from the office of County Superintendent of Schools Vasconcellos, and indicate that interesting sessions are in store for those who attend.

It is the plan to hold an institute each month, and under section No. 183 of the school law the time spent at such meetings is to be counted the same as time spent in the school room.

The program for Friday, both morning and afternoon, is made up entirely of local talent. It has been the custom in times past to have an out of town speaker on such occasions, but the speakers Friday will be local men.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lovell, son Charles and family, all of the Franklin vicinity, had a narrow escape from injury Sunday evening. They were returning from Montezuma where they visited relatives and when just east of Manchester the front wheel of the car came off and the car ran across a ditch and up into a hedge fence. If it had not been for the fact that they had just slakened their speed to pass a car, the accident would probably have had serious consequences. As it was they were badly frightened and shaken up but other wise none the worse for the happening.

MISS INEZ HUCKEY IS BRIDE OF R. F. ANDERSON

Pretty Ceremony Took Place at Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Huckey at 10 o'clock Monday Morning—Will Reside in Sikeston, Mo.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Huckey, 826 West State street was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding ceremony Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Tessa Inez Huckey, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Frazier Anderson of Sikeston, Mo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur F. Ewart of White Hall, and was witnessed by only a small company of relatives and intimate friends. The bride and groom were unattended.

Soon after the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served with Major and Mrs. E. C. Vickery as caterers. Later Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left via automobile for Springfield, St. Louis and other points in the south. They will be at home to their friends after November 1 at Sikeston, Mo.

Mrs. Anderson is one of the best known musicians of the city. Following her graduation from Illinois Woman's College she devoted special attention to music and has been more than ordinarily successful in her chosen career. She for some years served as organist at State Street Presbyterian church and at numerous times appeared on programs in this city and elsewhere.

It was two years ago that Mrs. Anderson went to Sikeston, Mo., where she was offered an excellent position as organist at the M. E. church. While resident in the Missouri city she conducted a music studio and had a number of students under her training.

Mrs. Anderson is a young woman of charming manner and has been very popular with a wide circle of friends, all of whom will unite in extending the best of wishes at this time.

Mr. Anderson belongs to a well known family of the Sikeston community and is a young man of business ability and high standing. He now holds the position of cashier of the Sikeston bank. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson begin their wedded life under most happy circumstances and the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends are theirs.

A CORRECTION.
Editor of The Journal:—

In my article entitled "What's the Matter With Morgan County?" published in The Journal of October 17 appeared the statement that the fees allowed by law to election officials (among others) remain the same as heretofore. This is an error, as a statute which became effective July 1, 1919, increased the fees of election judges and clerks from $3.00 to $6.00 a day. The cost to the county of the election and primaries held since this law became effective was approximately $2,000 more than would have been the case under the former law. While the error in perhaps of minor importance, I ask you, out of fairness, to publish this correction.

Yours very truly,
E. P. BROCKHOUSE.

A GREAT CROP OF SQUASHES

As a result of experience this year with squashes, A. C. Reid, residing north of the city, might well be justified in departing from his usual corn and wheat farming and go into the squash business. In a quarter of acre old orchard ground he has been troubled with weeds, and last spring he plowed this piece and planted it in crooked neck squashes.

Much to his surprise he has not been troubled with weeds this year and has 800 well developed squashes on this small piece of land. This situation is unlike that of the man raising pumpkins, who boasted that he could walk across his field stepping from pumpkin to pumpkin. For to the observer, it would look impossible to walk across Mr. Reid's squash patch and walk on the ground.
